Professional Summary

Senior Product Manager with 7 years of experience — started as a founding PM at a FinTech startup, scaled through Series B, then moved to a second startup as the first PM. Strong in 0→1 product development and owning product decisions without a manager above. No direct logistics background but experienced in building for operationally complex compliance and payments workflows.

Work Experience

Senior Product Manager

Cashfree Payments (B2B FinTech, 400 employees), Bengaluru · Apr 2022 – Present

- Senior PM for the payout and vendor payment API products — used by 50,000+ businesses including logistics, e-commerce, and gig platforms
- Shipped a freight logistics vertical payout feature after discovering that freight companies had unique reconciliation requirements not met by standard payout APIs
- Owns a 3-person squad; manages one junior PM; reports to VP Product
- Strong in fast iteration: shipping and killing features quickly is the product culture here — 3 features killed in 18 months, all based on 30-day adoption data
- No direct experience with freight operations or logistics domain, but 2 years of building payment products for logistics companies as primary customers

Product Manager → Senior Product Manager

Slice (Consumer FinTech, Series B), Bengaluru · Jun 2018 – Mar 2022

- Founding PM — first product hire; owned roadmap, delivery, and product decisions for 18 months with no PM manager
- Built the credit card onboarding, KYC, and repayment products from scratch; grew to 500,000+ active users
- Owned 0→1 delivery of the UPI payments feature — shipped in 14 weeks from discovery to production
- Made 3 significant pivot calls in the first year based on user data: each one changed the direction of a feature or killed it entirely
- Promoted to Senior PM at Series A; continued to own most product decisions while managing 1 junior PM
